The Peace of Wild Things

Wendell Berry

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.
I come into the peace of wild things
who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

Laughing Matters

The Passenger

A taxi passenger tapped the driver on the shoulder to ask him a question.

The driver screamed, lost control of the car, nearly hit a bus, went up on the footpath, and stopped inches before hitting a shop window.

For a second everything went quiet in the taxi, then the driver said, "Look mate, don't ever do that again. You scared the daylights out of me!"

The passenger apologized and said, "I didn't realize that a little tap would scare you so much."

The driver replied, "Sorry, it's not really your fault. Today is my first day as a cab driver - I've been driving a funeral van for the past 25 years".

The Coach

At one point during a soccer game, the coach says to one of his young players, "Do you understand what cooperation is? What a team is?" The little boy nods yes.

"Do you understand that what matters is whether we win together as a team?" The little boy nods yes.

"So," the coach continued, "when a strike is called, or you are out, you don't argue or curse or attack the umpire. Do you understand all that?" Again, the boy nods.

"Good," said the coach. "Now go and explain it to your mother."

Eye Problems

A man calls his boss and says "I can't come to work today".

The boss asks why and the man says "It's my eyes."

"What's wrong with your eyes?" asks his boss.

"I just can't see myself coming to work today."
